

German Auricular Medicine
Level II: Clearing Blockages to Healing
Agenda

With this course you will develop:

- Confidence in assessment and treatment skills
- Skill in the VAS as an assessment tool
- Understanding of applications of “Tissue Layers”
- Clinical Skills in “Pre-Assessment Method”
- Ability to prioritize treatment of Blockages to Healing (Focal Disturbances)
- Familiarity with the use of frequencies for assessment and treatment
- Advanced clinical case management skills

Thursday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm

- Welcome back! Overview of Agenda and Learning Outcomes. Introductions.
- Review key anatomical and functional points
- Additional points for Chronic Conditions:
  - Zone Points, Pain Memory Points, Cardinal Points
- VAS: Definition and Implications for Practice
- Understanding Focus Activity and Focus Diagnosis
- 3 Tissue Layers: Deep, Middle, Superficial Layers
- VAS practice finding points in different Tissue Layers
- Pre-Assessment Definition and use of bars
- Demonstration of Pre-Assessment
- Small Group Supervised Practice

Friday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm

- VAS Practice with Pre-Assessment
- Focus Indicator Points. Middle Layer.
- Practice finding Indicator Points
- Method Demonstration using Middle and Deep Layer points
- Small Group Supervised Practice

Saturday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm

- Testing for Intolerances with the Polaroid Filter. Demonstration and Practice.
- Adding the Superficial Layer information - vit/min associated with each focus
- Case Management: Treatment Forms
- Method Demonstration
- Small Group Practice, including finding associated superficial points for the highest foci.

Sunday 8:30 am - 5:00 pm

- Discussion, Questions, Next steps in your training
- Adding the Hidden Dental Focus System - Demonstration
- Small Group Practice

Afternoon Optional

- Setting up goals for final practice period
- Demonstration and Group Practice